FAIRFIELD HIGH SCHOOL

FAIRIE

DO YOU REMEMBER

VOL. X

HAMILTON, OHIO

ALMA MATER

Dear Fairfield High School,
We're loyal to you.
Though sorrow and joy come,
We'll always be true.

We think of all friendships
Our school days did bring.
Though dear friends have parted
Still memories will ring,
Our fair Alma Mater
Your praise we will sing.

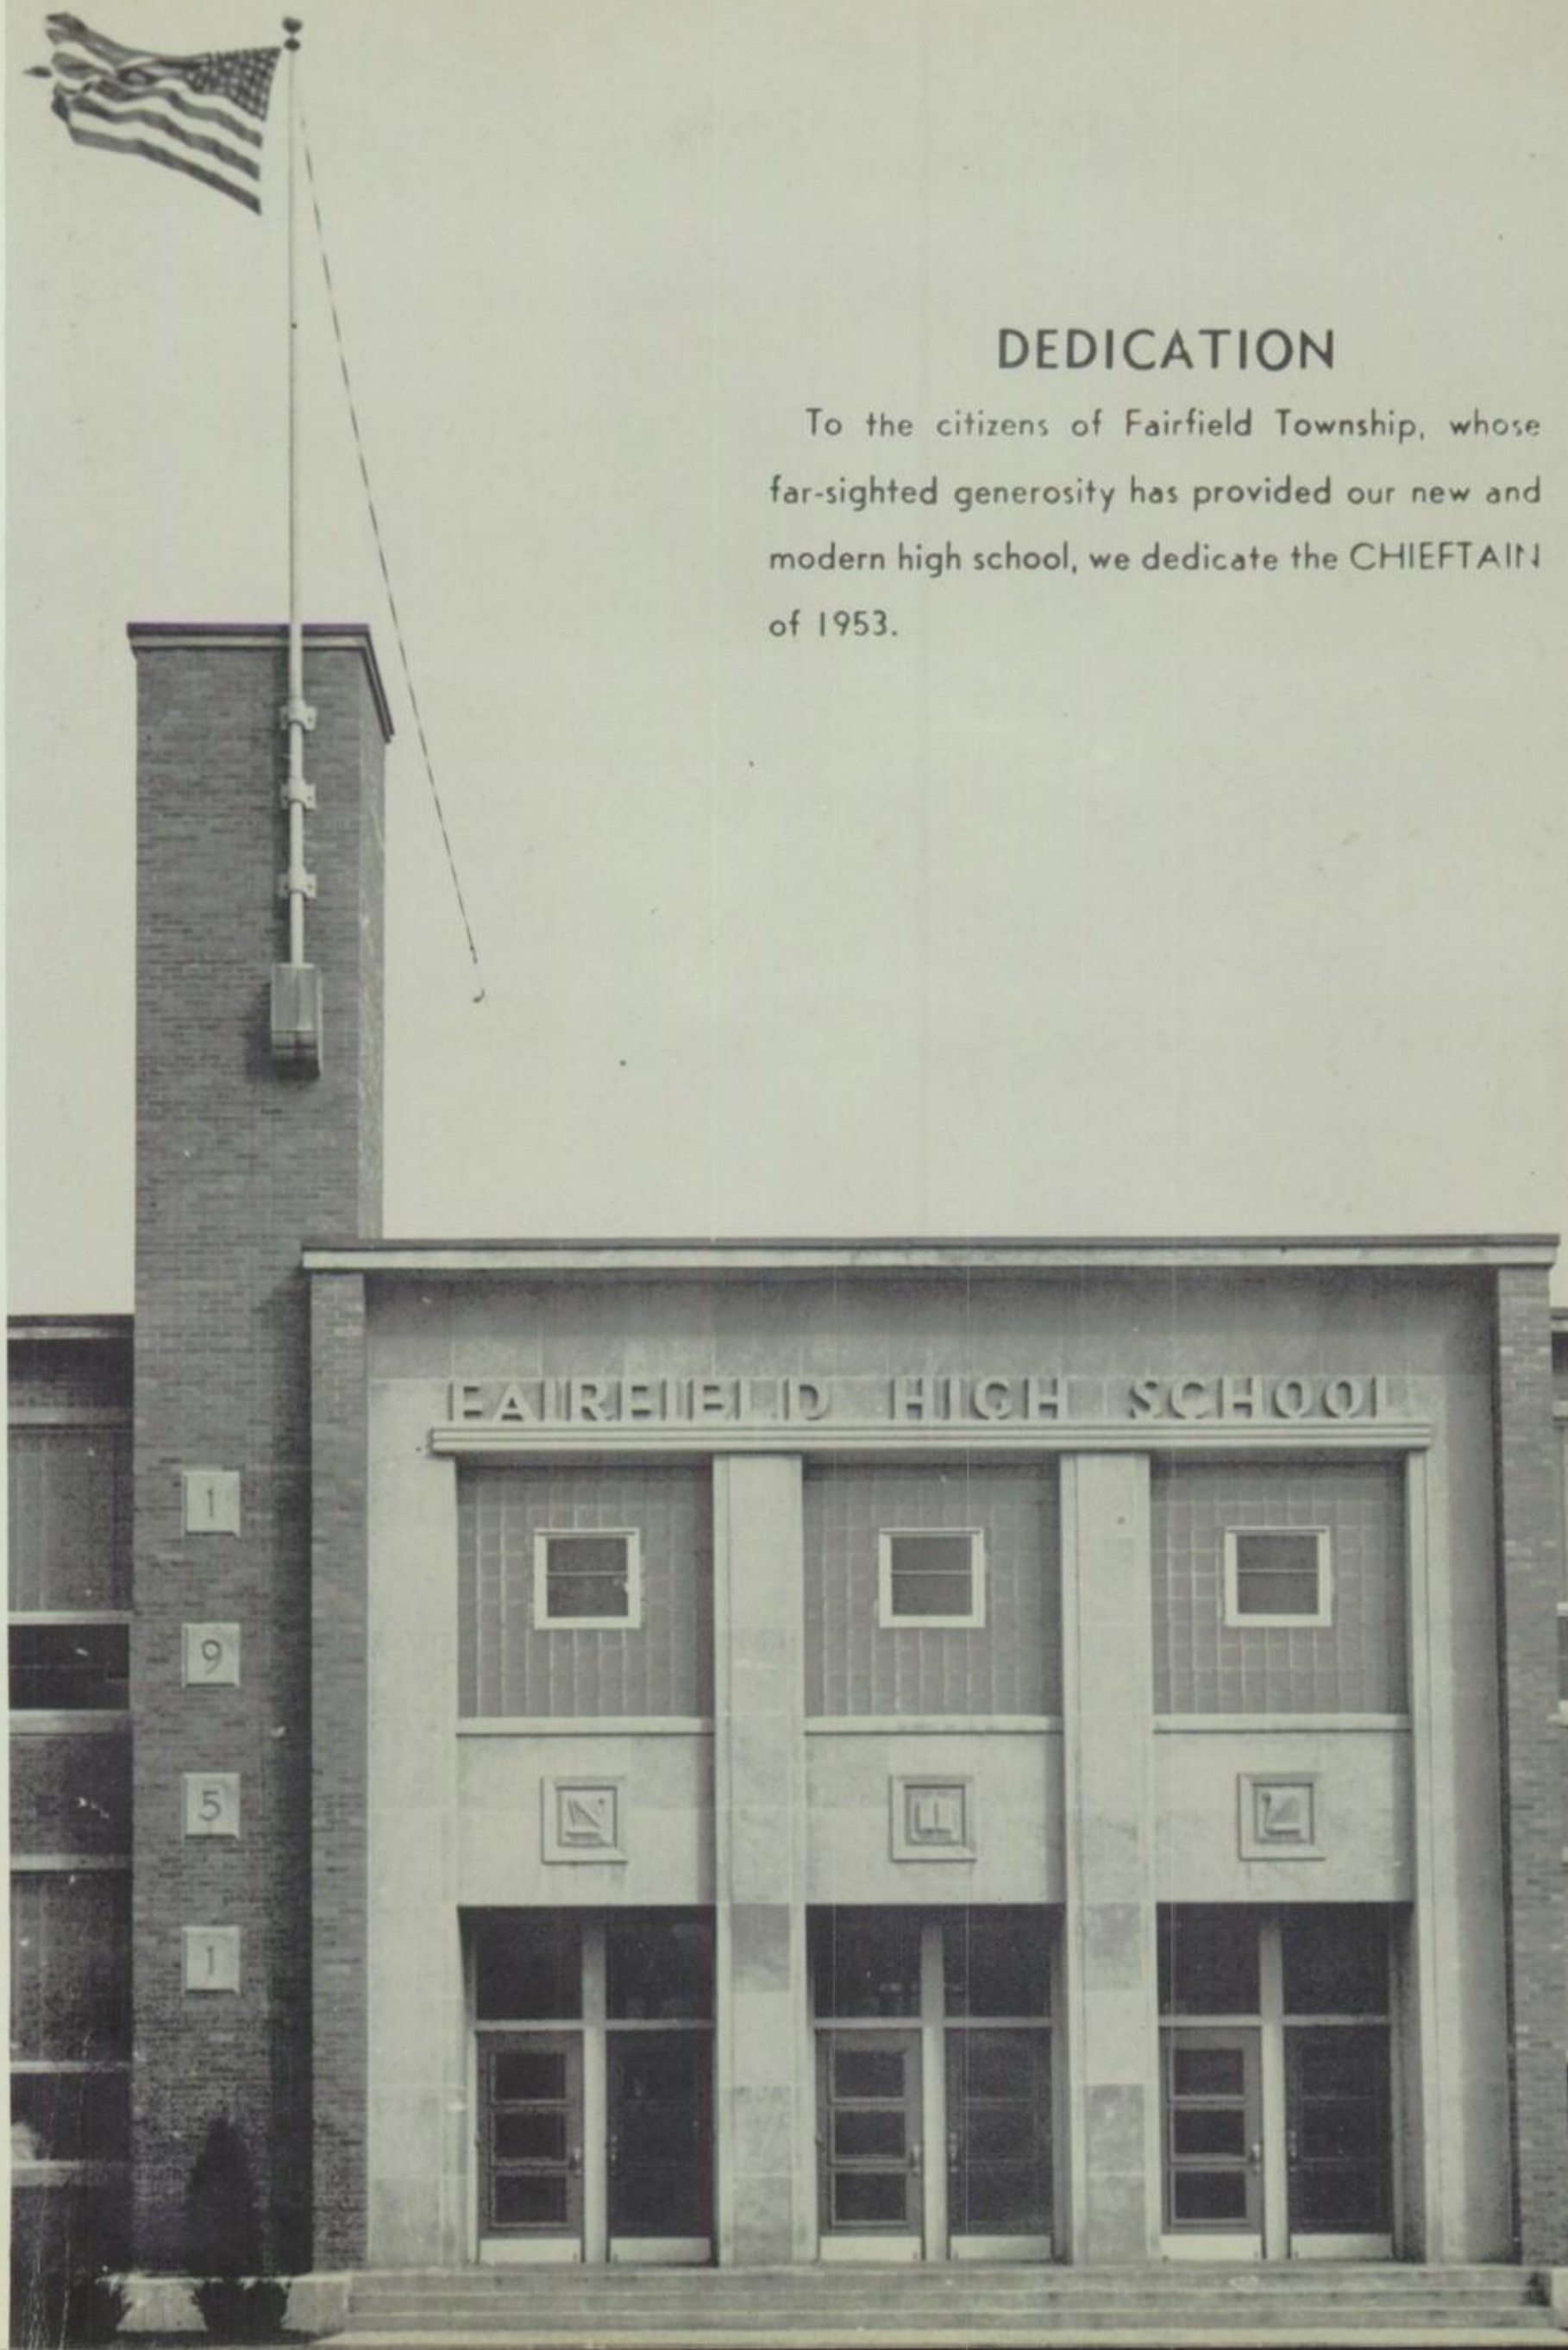
DEDICATION

To the citizens of Fairfield Township, whose far-sighted generosity has provided our new and modern high school, we dedicate the CHIEFTAIN of 1953.



DEARIE DO YOU REMEMBER

Dearie, do you remember the classrooms which were so dear to us,

The cafeteria, corridors, and your school bus.

The labs, the library and the study hall were helpful in many ways.

Test your memory, my dearie. Do you recall the creativeness of some of our friends,

Golly! To return to these scenes again,

Dearie, life was cheerie in the good old days gone by,

Do you remember? If you remember, then you're much older than I.

SCHOOL LIFE

We Strove For Competence

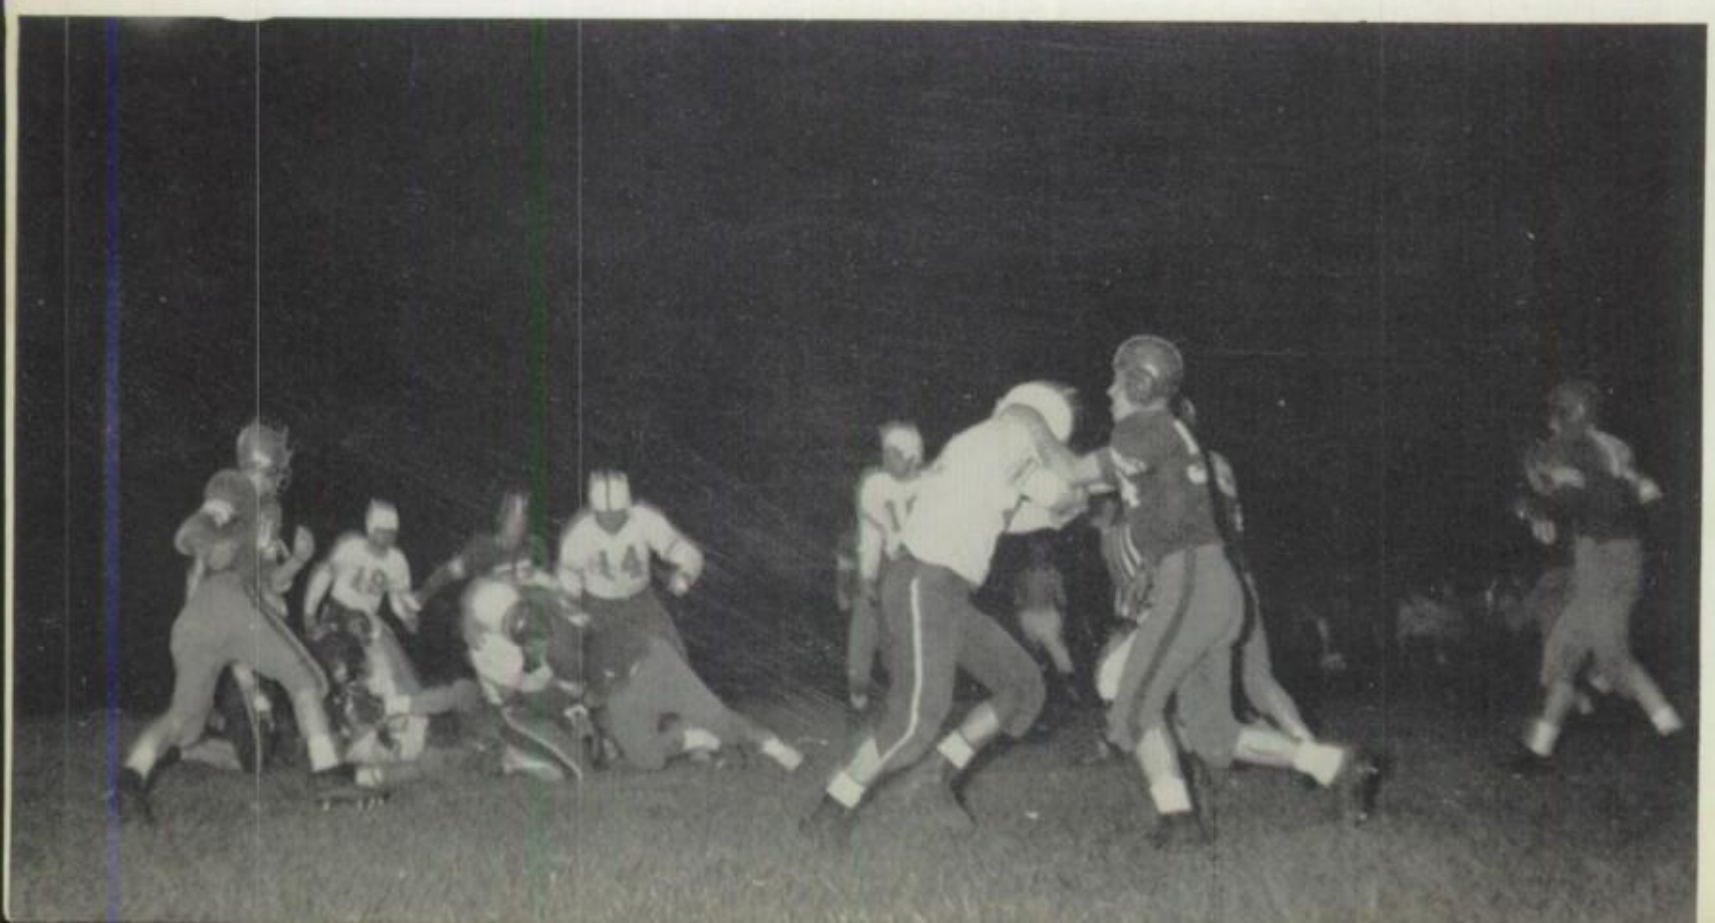
Remember how we burned our fingers in making fudge or sewed our seams crooked? Yet we learned to do by doing. In home economics we were taught how to sew, to cook, and to carry out homemaking activities.

In Practical Arts, . . .

In industrial arts we had to be watched lest we cut our own fingers. However, the varied skills which we developed will open to us a variety of vocational opportunities, and thus help us find a place for ourselves in the competitive world of skilled workmen.

Fair Play In Competitive Sports . . .

We'll never forget those games, hard fought, and hard won. But always we strove for good sportsmanship. We learned that the rules of good sportsmanship apply to those who "root" from the sidelines as well as to those who play the game. Now we must apply those rules to the game of daily living.



Cordiality In Class Reunions . . .

And then the Homecoming! It was Fairfield's first official one, and our planning made it a success. To those who follow us we have passed on not only the Homecoming, but also our traditions of pep rallies, cold football nights, and cheers from voices grown hoarse from yelling. These too, are part of the school memories, forever dear to us.

As We Learned To Live Together . . .

Who can forget our teachers and our classes? How we were taught to work toward ideals, to carry them through, and not to give up. In class we learned to exchange ideas in a friendly manner and to look at things objectively . . .
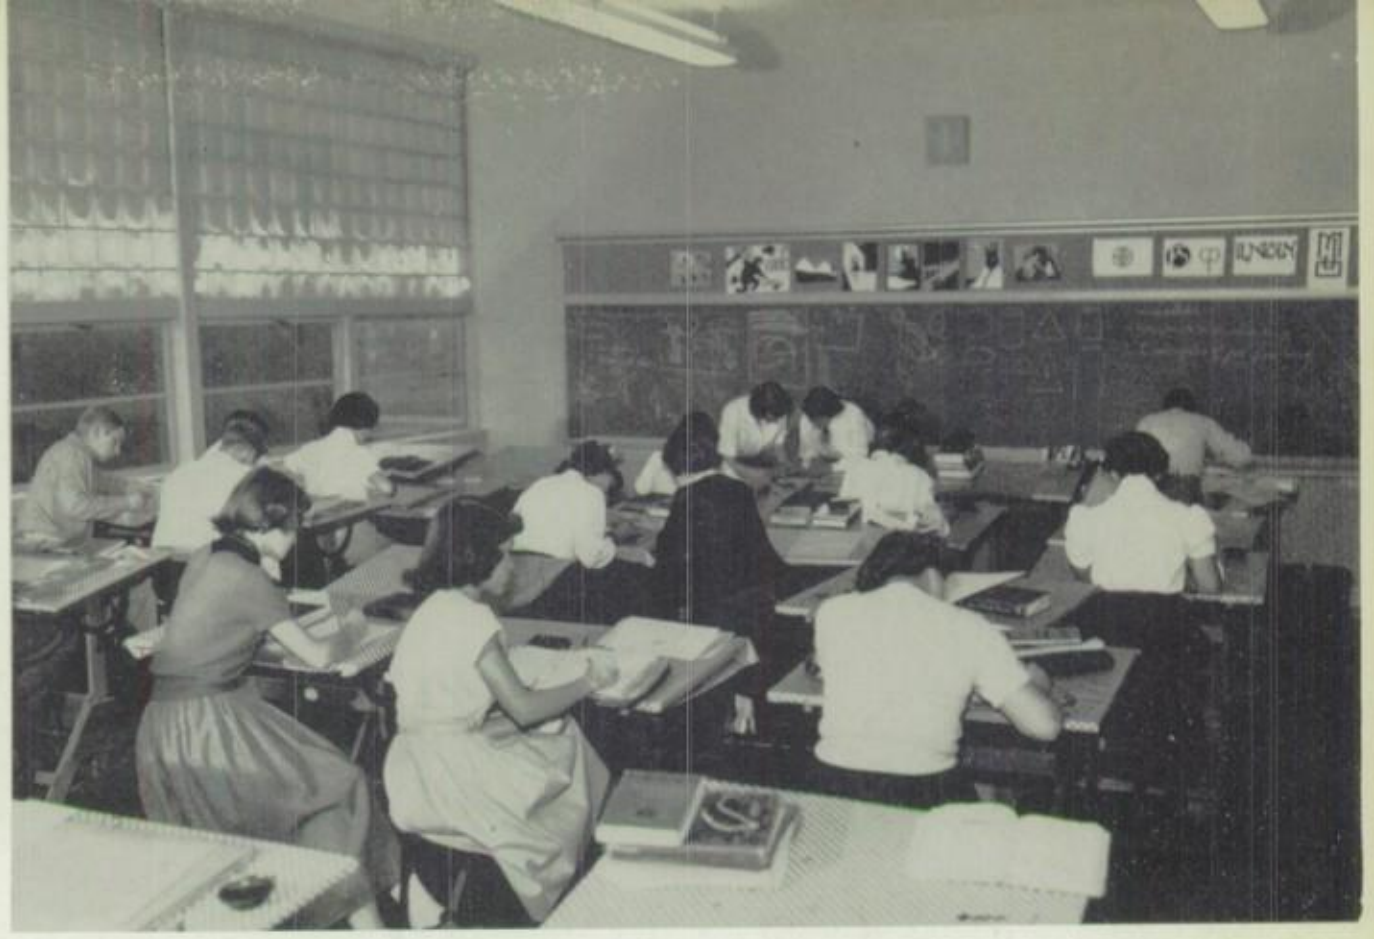
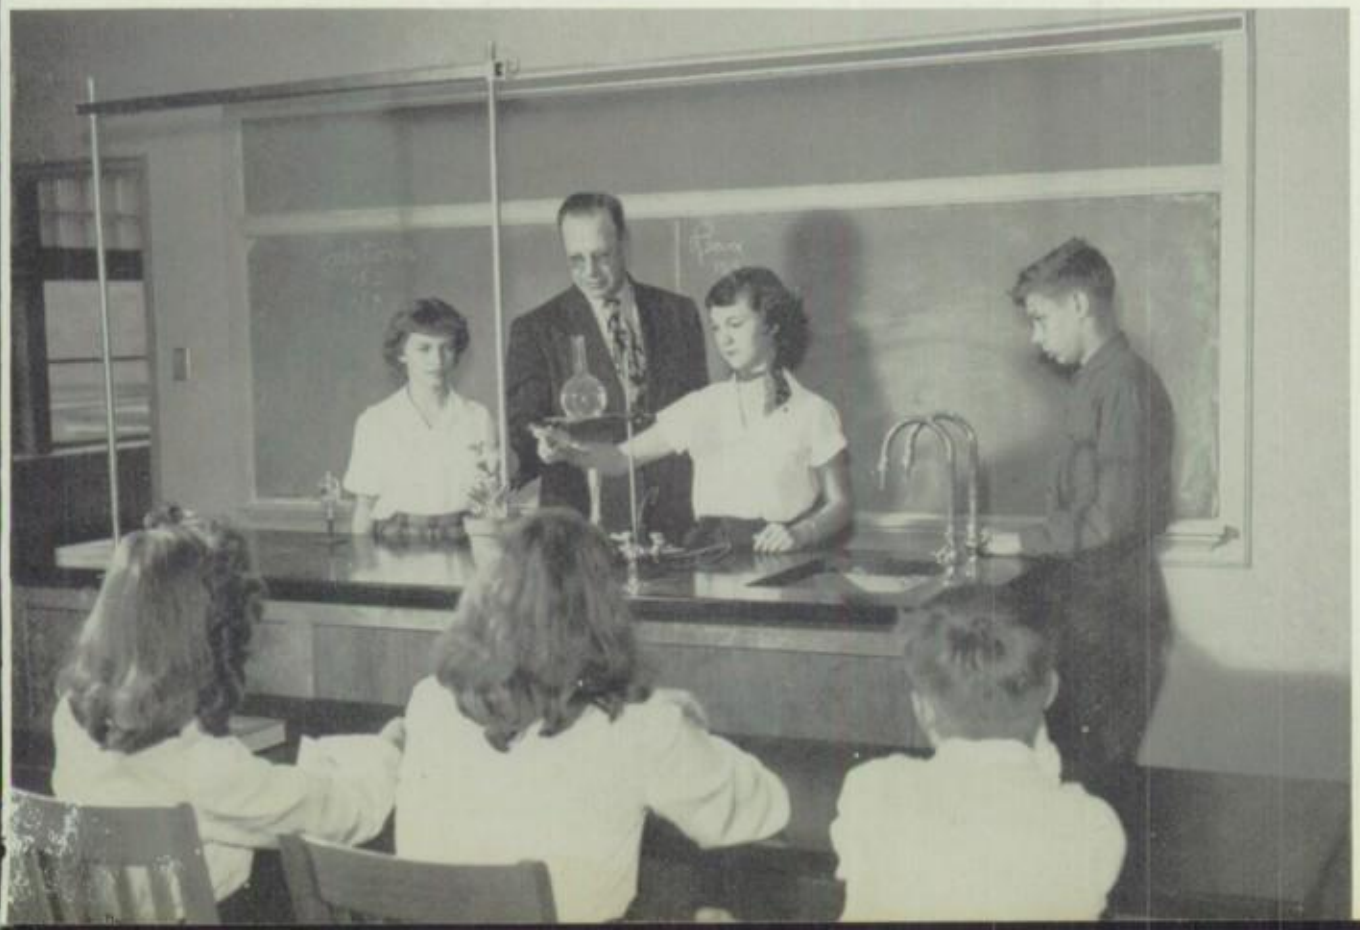
all part of the art of living together.

And Develop Our Understanding



Our learning first of all was a matter of the three R's. As high school students we put forth an honest effort to take interest in science, to be at ease when speaking before others, to understand mathematics, or to spend our leisure time reading the world's best literature.



Of Other People

Their Thoughts And Deeds, . . .

One of the most important things we learned in school was how to get along with others. Not only did we learn this in the classrooms and corridors, but also in the cafeteria and on the school buses. We tried to strive for courtesy and safety in order to have a healthy and happy student body.

As Well As Our Own Selves.

Thus through all our varied school experiences each of us developed his own character traits which made us different from our fellow students. Each of us is an individual. We each have our own beliefs, aptitudes, and ambitions. Now may we be able to express our knowledge and skill so as to benefit society, as well as our own selves.

DEARIE DO YOU REMEMBER

Dearie, do you remember the excellent guidance, we received with the advice we sought from our faculty?

The administrators with their supervision provided a better school.

Test your memory, my dearie. Do you recall how they would lend a helping hand, to aid in making our project plans.

Dearie, life was cheerie in the good old days gone by.

Do you remember? If you remember, then you're much older than I.

DEARIE DO YOU REMEMBER

Dearie, do you remember when we began our senior year?

It started with laughs and even with cheers.

To think that we were finally seniors after all those years.

Test your memory, my dearie. Do you recall the books which we had to carry about,

Studying from English to Beethoven and Strauss.

Dearie, life was cheerie in the good old days gone by,

Do you remember? If you remember, then you're much older than I.

The Seniors of 1953 have had a lot of happy experiences at Fairfield during their last four years of school.

Such activities as the Senior play, the candy sales at noon, the Homecoming Dance, and their annual class party kept the Seniors quite busy. Trips to factories such as Champion, Armco, and Fisher Body also provided versatile educational opportunities plus the enjoyment had by all.

The successful year of the Seniors was climaxed by a trip to the nation's capital, Washington, D. C.

The Seniors of 1953 will never forget their school days at "Dear Fairfield High."

DEARIE DO YOU REMEMBER

Dearie, do you remember all those interesting activities such as:

Music, art and the different societies,

Plays and dances and even assemblies gave us plenty to do.

Test your memory, my dearie.

Do you recall the most enjoyable times which we all had,

Those "cool" songs and crazy fads.

Dearie, life was cheerie in the good old days gone by.

Do you remember? If you remember, then you're much older than I

ORGANIZATIONS

Both elementary and high school news are to be found in THE TORCH, the publication of the journalism class. Each year a new group of students gain actual experience in editing and managing this mimeographed paper which appears each month. It contains original art work, features, news, editorials, sports, and comments by the students. The sponsors of THE TORCH are Mrs. Mary Patrick, Mr. Harry Allen in charge of typing, and Mrs. Elsie MacQuiston in charge of grade school news.

The 1953 CHIEFTAIN staff's goal has been to present to the best of its ability an interesting pictorial account of life at Fairfield during 1953. Plans for the yearbook were begun in the summer of 1952 and continued through until our final deadline, February 19.

We, the staff, wish to thank the Art Department under the direction of Mr. Bernard Le Poris, the Commercial Department under the auspices of Mr. Harry Allen, Mr. Fred Stroehlein, school photographer, Miss Jeanne Luddy, the annual advisor, and all other students and faculty members who helped make the CHIEFTAIN a success.

The Student Council is an honor group composed of the class officers of the high school classes. It is the aim of this group to encourage all desirable school activities and to help promote those things that make a better school, and a more wholesome school community. Our motto is "Good Scholarship, Good Conduct, Good Citizenship."

Within the Student Council is the Safety Council whose aim is to promote safety in the school, home and on the highway. The council has supplied "Bumper Safety Slogans" for cars each month.

Scholarship, leadership, character, and service are the four qualities which determine membership into the Honor Society.

Fairfield's Chapter sponsored a public square dance and also gave two food baskets to needy families at Christmas.

Initiation of new members took place at a school assembly, February 27. Mr. Wade Miller, Superintendent of Middletown Schools, was the speaker.

F.T.A. ASSISTED TEACHERS

The purpose of the Future Teachers of America is to encourage and to help young people to become interested in the teaching profession.

It gives members intimate contact with pupils, experience in working with children, helping them solve their problems, and the satisfactions of the teaching profession.

To gain practical experience each member assists a classroom teacher.

HOMEMAKERS HAD ACTIVE YR.

Future Homemakers of America endeavor to promote a growing appreciation of the joys and satisfactions of homemaking.

During the first semester Fairfield's Homemakers held two bake sales, made stuffed toys for children at Mercy Hospital, and gave a Christmas party.

Highlighting the second semester was a banquet for members and parents and a tour through Proctor and Gamble.

ELEMENTARY GRADES FORMED BAND

The Elementary Band is made up of players from grades four through eight. It is comprised of musicians of one or more years' experience. The Elementary Band is led by the Beginners Band, whose members are promoted just as soon as they have mastered the basic training on their instruments. This year's band has about thirty members and has played in public three times. They played at a high school assembly, an elementary assembly, and at the Elementary Music Festival at West Chester on May 1.

EXPLORER SCOUTS

Explorer Post No. 14 of the Boy Scouts of America was activated in November, 1951, and sponsored locally by the Fairfield P. T. A. Our first charter contained the names of eight boys, but now has expanded to one of the largest posts in the Ft. Hamilton Council. Exploring is for boys between the ages of fourteen and eighteen.

Since its inception the Explorer program has been devoted to building better citizens. This, the leaders feel, can best be accomplished by meeting the needs of boys mentally, physically and morally.

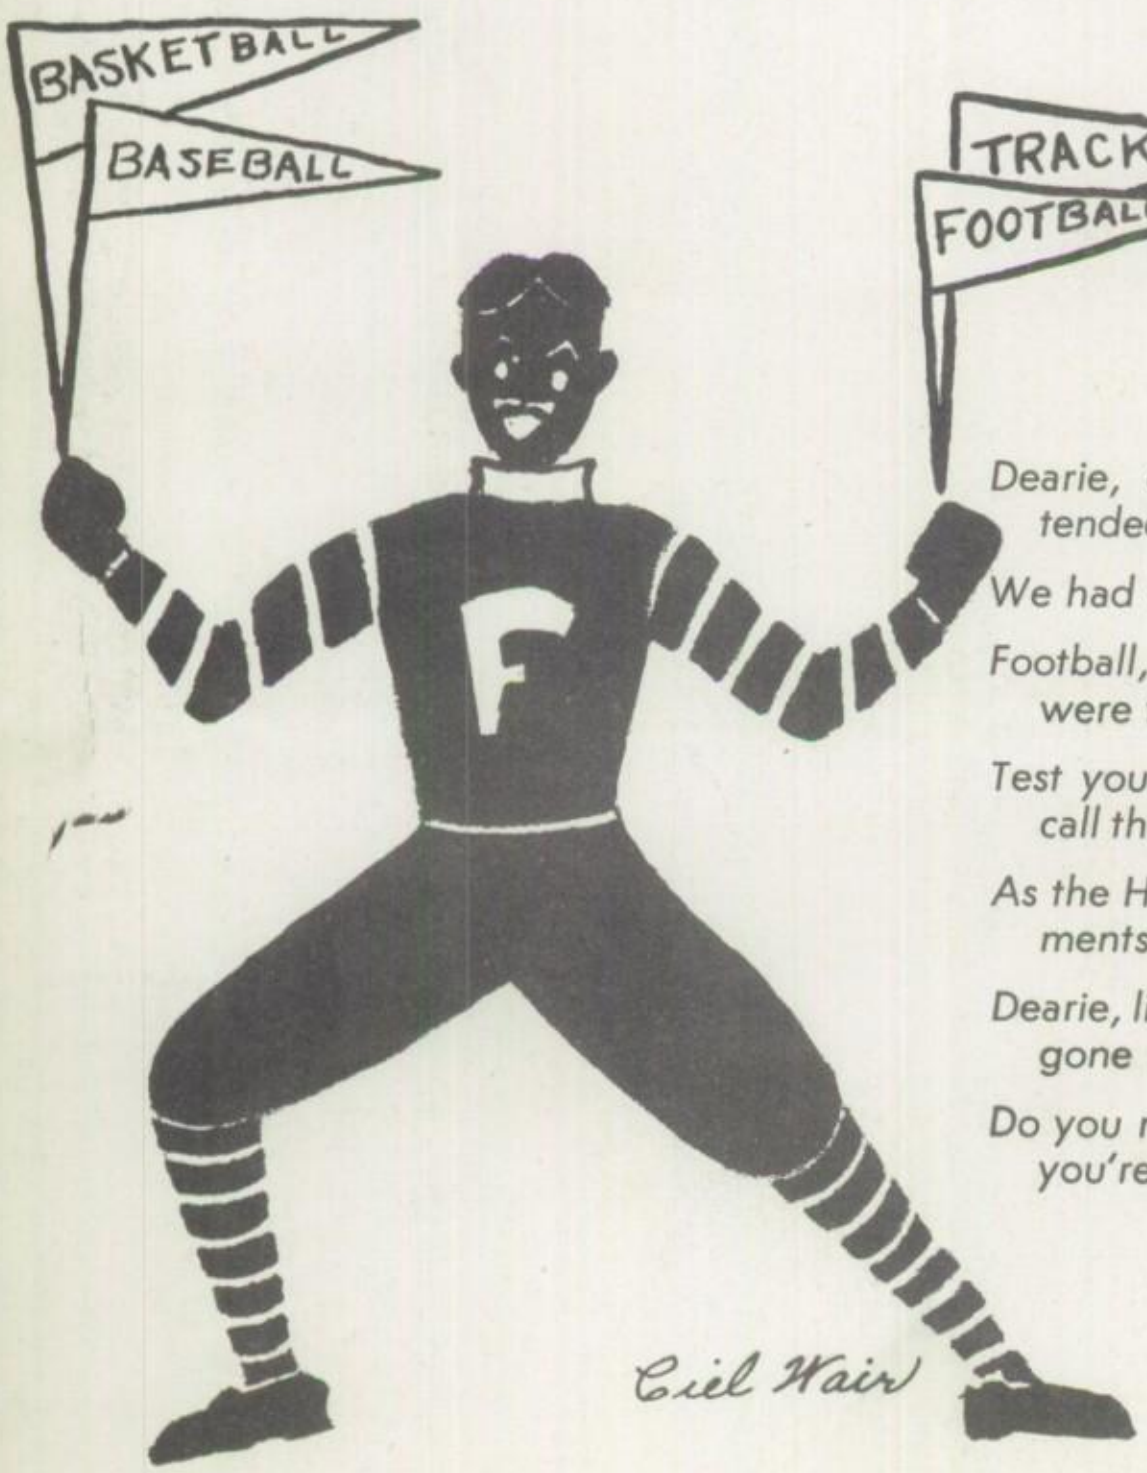
DEARIE

DO YOU REMEMBER



Dearie, do you remember when we attended all those exciting games?

We had teams that achieved great fame.

Football, basketball, track and baseball were the sports of the year.

Test your memory, my dearie. Do you recall the successful events,

As the Homecoming, play day, and tournaments?

Dearie, life was cheerie in the good old days gone by,

Do you remember? If you remember, then you're much older than I.

Pictured above are: Assistant Coach Custer Reynolds and Coach Christy Arnold.

In a football season packed with thrills Fairfield High School climaxed a very successful season, considering it marked the first year in Class A competition. The high flying Indians drank only twice from the bitter cup of defeat. Six times they tasted the sweet cup of victory.

After the smoke from a hard fought football season was cleared, Fairfield scored two hundred and two points, while holding all opponents to fifty.

The team played their hearts out for Fairfield and Coaches Arnold and Reynolds.

Fairfield began her season with three victories over Monroe, Ross, and Brookville.

The traditional rival, Hamilton Catholic, sank before the vicious blocking and tackling of the Indians, who won 18 to 6. This game was seen by some 5,000 fans.

New Boston, a new team on our schedule, had a clean record until the Indians scored a brilliant 15-0 win. This was Fairfield's first Homecoming.

Seven Mile played a very outstanding game against Fairfield and handed the Indians their first defeat.

Norwood scored a 19-0 victory over Fairfield in the last game of the season.

Top row: Larry Thall, Sammy Agee, Earl Glenn, Edward Bowling, Roy Johnson.

Third row: David Yeary, Kenneth Bippus, Glenn Henderson, Lonnie Hurst, Earl Murray, Calvin Slater, Sylvester Reiff.

DEARIE

DO YOU REMEMBER

Dearie, do you remember when we shopped in those various stores, and each day we purchased more and more?

Clothing, food, and varied service were the things which we bought.

Test your memory, my dearie. Do you recall the restaurants where we used to eat, and the places where the gang used to meet?

Dearie, life was cheerie in the good old days gone by.
